

Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully!

The office is permitted by federal privacy laws to make uses and disclosures of your health information for purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operation. Protected health information is the information we create and obtain in providing our services to you. Such information may include documenting your symptoms, examinations, test results, diagnosis, treatment, and applying for future care or treatment. It also includes billing documents for those services.

Examples of Uses of your Health Information for Treatment Purposes are:

- Releasing treatment information to referring doctors to assist in your treatment plan.
- Releasing information to hospitals, operating rooms, ancillary providers in order to coordinate treatment, appointments, or surgeries.
- A nurse obtains treatment information about you and records it in a health record.
- During the course of your treatment, the physician determines he/she will need to consult with another specialist in the area. He/she will share the information with such specialist and obtain his/her input.
- Staff members may disclose or use your information for changes or scheduling of your appointments or appointment reminders.

Example of Use of Your Health Information for Payment Purposes:

We submit requests for payment to your health insurance company. The health insurance company (or other business associate helping us obtain payment) requests information from us regarding medical care given. We will provide information to them about you and the care given.

Example of Use of Your Information for Health Care Operations:

We obtain services from our insurers or other business associates such as quality assessment, quality improvement, outcome evaluation, protocol and clinical guideline development, training programs, credentialing, medical review, legal services, and insurance. We will share information about you with such insurers or other business associates as necessary to obtain these services.

Your Health Information Rights

The health and billing records we maintain are the physical property of the office. The information in it, however, belongs to you. You have a right to:

- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your health information by delivering the request to our office. We are not required to grant the request.
- Obtain a paper copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information (“Notice”) by making a request at our office.
- In most cases, you have the right to look at or obtain a copy of health information about you that we use to make decisions about you. If you request copies, we will charge you $14.00 for the first 10 pages and $0.33 for each page thereafter. Copies will be provided within 30 days of the request if on-site or 60 days if not on premises.
- Appeal a denial of access to your protected health information, except in certain circumstances.
- Request that your health care record be amended to correct incomplete or incorrect information by delivering a request to our office. We may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
- Is not part of the information kept by or for the office.
- Is not part of the information that you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or,
- Is accurate and complete.

If your request is denied, you will be informed of the reason for the denial and will have an opportunity to submit a statement of disagreement to be maintained with your records;

- Request that communication of your health information be made by alternative means or at an alternate location by delivering the request in writing to our office;
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as required to be maintained by law by delivering a request to our office. An accounting will not include uses and disclosures of information for treatment, payment, or operation; disclosures or uses made to you or made at your request; uses or disclosures made pursuant to an authorization signed by you; uses or disclosures made in a facility directory or to family members or friends relevant to that person's involvement in payment for such care; or, uses or disclosures to notify family or others responsible for your care of your location, condition, or your death. Your first request for an "Accounting of Disclosures" will be free of charge. Subsequent requests will be granted for a $5.00 fee.
- Revoke authorization that you made previously to use or disclose information by delivering a written revocation to our office, except to the extent information or action has already been taken.

If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact Medical Records Department at Premier Orthopedics, 3920 N. Union Blvd., #330 Colorado Springs, Colorado 80907, in person or in writing during regular business hours. (S)he will inform you of the steps that need to be taken to exercise your rights.

Our Responsibilities

The office is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information as required by law;
- Provide you with a notice as to our duties and privacy practices as to the information we collect and maintain about you;
- Abide by the terms of this Notice;
- Notify you if we cannot accommodate a requested restriction or request; and,
- Accommodate your reasonable requests regarding methods to communicate health information with you.

We reserve the right to amend, change, or eliminate provisions in our privacy practices and access practices and to enact new provisions regarding the protected health information we maintain. If our information practices change, we will amend our Notice. You are entitled to receive a revised copy of the Notice by calling and requesting a copy of our "Notice" or by visiting our office and picking up a copy.

To Request Information or File a Complaint

If you have questions, would like additional information, or want to report a problem regarding the handling of your information, you may contact the HIPAA Privacy Officer at Premier Orthopedics, 3920 N. Union Blvd., #330 Colorado Springs, Colorado 80907.

Additionally, if you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a written complaint with our office by delivering the written complaint to the Privacy Officer. You may also file a complaint by mailing it or e-mailing it to the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

- We cannot, and will not, require you to waive the right to file a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS) as a condition of receiving treatment from the office.

- We cannot, and will not, retaliate against you for filing a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services.
